EXHIBIT 7

```
Page 171
1
                     ROY THOMAS
2
               UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
               SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
3
4
    GARY FRIEDRICH ENTERPRISES, LLC, et al., 5 Plaintiffs,
6
                                    Civil Action No.
         VS.
7
                                   08-CV-01533 (BSJ) (JCF)
8
    MARVEL ENTERPRISES, INC., et al., Defendants.
10 11
              Videotaped deposition of ROY THOMAS, 12
    VOLUME II, taken on behalf of Defendants, before 13
    Rita A. DeRouen, Registered Professional Reporter 14 and Notary Public, at the Radisson Hotel, 2100 15
    Bush River Road, Board Room, Columbia, South
    Carolina, on the 13th day of April, 2011, 17 commencing at 11:01 a.m.
18 19 20 21
22
23
24
25 TSG Job # 37618
```

```
Page 172
1
                      ROY THOMAS
2 APPEARANCES OF COUNSEL:
3
              On Behalf of the Plaintiffs:
4
              CHARLES S. KRAMER, ESQ.
              Riezman Berger
5 7700 Bonhomme Avenue
              Seventh Floor
6
              St. Louis, Missouri 63105
8
          -and-9
              ERIC W. EVANS, ESQ.
              Roth Evans, P.C.
10
              2421 Corporate Centre Drive
              Suite 200
11
              Granite City, Illinois 62040
12
13 14
              On Behalf of the Defendants:
15
              JODI A. KLEINICK, ESQ.
              Paul Hastings Janofsky & Walker
16
              75 East 55th Street
              First Floor
17
              New York, New York 10022
18 19 20 21
      Also Present: Donald Graves, CLVS
                     Eli Bard, Marvel Entertainment
22
23
24
25
```

		Page	173
1	ROY THOMAS
2	I N D E X
3	EXAMINATION	PAGE
4	By Mr. Kramer	342
5	_	174, 404
6		,
	INDEX TO EXHIBITS
7
		PAGE 8
	Exhibit 18, E-mail, Bates THOM0000213	240
9	Exhibit 19, The Ghost Rider Comic Book,	250
	1 Feb, Color
10	Exhibit 20, Tales of The Ghost Rider Comic	255
1 1	Book, No. 13, Color
11	Exhibit 21, Interview of Roy Thomas, Bates	258
1.0	MVL-00015453 - 15468	0.60
12	Exhibit 22, Newsarama.com Article, Bates	263
13	Friedrich 000317 - 320	0.7.1
12	Exhibit 23, CBA Interview, Bates	271
14	THOMOOO8015 - 8029	27.6
1 1	Exhibit 24, SEMissourian.com Article,	276
15	Bates Friedrich 000341 - 345 Exhibit 25, Ghost Rider DVD	339
	Exhibit 26, E-mail, Bates THOM0000128	360
16	EXHIBIC 20, E-Mail, Baces Inomououizo	300
17	PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED EXHIBITS
18	Exhibit 4	257
	Exhibit 7	375
19	Exhibit 8	359
	Exhibit 14	241
20	Exhibit 16	188
	Exhibit 17	189
21	Exhibit 18	359
22		- 0 0
23
24

Page 178 1 ROY THOMAS 2 do any -- much real staff writing in that 3 madhouse, it was just too noisy and clamorous, and 4 I wasn't the kind of person who could write under 5 those circumstances. Were you paid a -- was -- was the Q. 7 staff writing position a salaried position? 8 Α. Yes. 0. And I believe you testified that you 10 received separate compensation for the freelance 11 work that you -- for the freelance writing that 12 you did during this time period? 13 Α. Yes. It began almost im --14 immediately really. 15 And how were you compensated for the 16 freelance work that you did? 17 Α. Well, without remembering every 18 single check as to how often, I know there were 19 just checks that every -- I don't remember if they 20 were every week or second week, they would have a 21 separate check that would come in for whatever 22 work you had vouchered as freelance during that 23 period. 24 Were -- were you paid based on a --25 on a page rate for that work?

Page 201 1 ROY THOMAS 2 individual writer and artist. 3 It generally was a page, more likely 4 two or three pages, of typed copy that told the 5 It didn't break it down into panels basic story. or pages, didn't include much, if any, of the 7 actual dialogue, but it told the basic story, which the artist was then supposed to translate into pictures. 10 Of course, as I said, this was often 11 done -- increasingly and in various situations, it 12 was also done verbally without something being 13 written down. It depended on the relationship 14 between the artist and the writer. If the artist 15 really wanted a written plot, he would get one, 16 some would just as soon not have one. 17 0. The next step in the process that you 18 described during your testimony yesterday was 19 where the artist would break down the plot into 20 actual pages of the story, quote, adding whatever 21 he felt he needed to add to flesh out the story. 22 Do you recall that? 23 Α. Yes. 24 And you also testified that, at that 0. 25 point, materials would be what you referred to as

```
Page 202
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2 trafficked through the office to various extents?
3
          A .
                 Yes.
4
                MR. KRAMER: Object to the form of 5 the question, that misstates his prior testimony.
6
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
7 0.
                What did you mean by "trafficked
8 through the office"?
9
          A .
                Well, particularly, it could have 10 even been that the plot was sent -- was mailed 11 from the office if the person was in there and 12 gave -- and turned it in.
13
                 But, especially by the time the 14 artist had drawn the pencil drawings, they -- they 15 had to either mail them or physically bring them 16 by the office, which meant that the production 17 manager and a couple of people, you know, working 18 under him would -- would take care of it, they 19 would take care of it so that it went to the next 20 person, which was generally the letterer unless 21
    Stan or I or someone said that they needed to see 22 the script or the artwork before it went to -- 23 before it went to the letterer.
24
                Again, that depended on the trust in 25 the artist and various other factors as to how
```

```
Page 203
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2 closely and at what stage something was looked 3 at.
4
                 Oh, and I also stated yesterday that 5 trafficking sometimes was just verbal directions 6 and that the artist might be told, to save time, 7
    to -- and some of them just hand-delivered it 8 because they were neighbors or whatever, to give 9
    the art directly to -- the art and the script 10 directly to the letterer.
11
                 Once the -- I'm sorry, maybe I 12
                First we had to have the art come back misstated.
13
    to the office for the writer to do the dialogue, 14 and that went -- then it went to the letterer.
15 each -- in each step it was trafficked by the 16 office either physically or by phone.
17 0.
                 I think that you testified that the 18
    -- that after the materials went to the 19 letterer -- 20
                 Uh-huh.
           Α.
21
                 -- then it would go -- they would go 22 to the inker; is that correct?
23 Either directly mailed by the 24 letterer or maybe delivered to him if -- or picked 25 up by him or trafficked through the office, either
```

Page 217 1 ROY THOMAS 2 basis on his own, he might be thinking a little 3 ahead. 4 Of course, that was then subject to 5 my or to Stan Lee's veto when they suggested a It was certainly not part of their story line. 7 job to do. 8 BY MS. KLEINICK: I asked you -- my question was: 10 you aware of any instance where that happened? 11 I'm -- I'm not aware of any instance 12 where it happened. 13 To your knowledge, at any point Q. 14 between July of 1965 and the end of 1972, did 15 Marvel ever buy a plot or synopsis or script that 16 was created on spec by a freelance writer or 17 artist? 18 MR. KRAMER: Object to the form, lack 19 of foundation. 20 THE WITNESS: I -- I can't think of 21 one. 22 BY MS. KLEINICK: 23 During the time period between July 24 of 1965 and the end of 1972, after a writer --25 strike that.

```
Page 218
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2
                 During the time period between July 3 of 1965 and the end of 1972, were there any 4 production deadlines set with respect to the comic 5
    book issues that were being published by Marvel?
6
                 MR. KRAMER: Object to form, lack of 7 foundation.
8
                 THE WITNESS: They always had 9 deadlines.
                Everything -- everything had a 10 deadline really.
11
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
12
          Q.
                 Do you know who set those deadlines?
13
                 They were set on behalf of the -- the Α.
14 editor, Stan Lee, until maybe the very end of that 15 period by the production manager on -- on the 16 editor's authority.
17
                 And were there any restrictions on Q.
18 the number of pages for particular comic books 19 during this time period?
20
                 MR. KRAMER: Object to form, lack of 21 foundation.
22
                 THE WITNESS: Most of the stories had 23
    a definite page length, which would vary from time 24 to time, 20, 21, or whatever pages. We did have a 25 few stories -- comics we called mystery comics
```

```
Page 219
1
                    ROY THOMAS 2 with -- without continuing characters in which 3 there was more flexibility, it might be a five-4 page story, a seven-page story, or whatever.
5
                 The writer was generally given some page length when he was told to write the story.
7 Occasionally he might find some excuse and get 8 approval to vary it, but there was -- there was always some sort of limitation there.
10
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
11
                And during the July of 1965 to the 12 end of 1972 time period, who, if anyone, at Marvel 13 decided which books would be published?
14
                 MR. KRAMER: Object to form and 15 foundation.
16
                 THE WITNESS: It was always -- the 17 ultimate say, as far as I know, was the publisher, 18 who, up through most -- through most of that time 19 was Martin Goodman, both before and for some time 20 after he sold the company.
21
                 There was a period near the end of 22 that time for a year or so, maybe it was a little 23 less than that year, not too much more, when his 24 son, Charles Chip Goodman, was the -- was the 25 publisher, and he had that decision.
```

```
Page 220
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2
                 That would have been at the very end 3 of that period. Stan increasingly had authority 4 to do things, but it was always rather vague. He 5 still ultimately had to have the publisher's authority to start a book or kill a book or do 7 anything of that sort.
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
9
          Q.
                 What do you mean by "start a book"?
10
                 To authorize a new comic book title 11 as opposed to an existing one.
12
           Q.
                 When you were the assistant editor at 13 Marvel, did you have authority to make changes to 14
    the materials that were submitted for publication 15 by a freelance writer or artist if you believed 16 changes were appropriate?
17
                 MR. KRAMER: Object to form and 18 foundation.
19
                 THE WITNESS: I have to ask, did you 20 mean strictly assistant or after I was also called 21 associate editor after about '66 or '67? I wanted 22 to make sure when I answered it.
23
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
24
                 I was referring just to the period 25 when you were assistant editor.
```

Page 224

```
1 ROY THOMAS
```

- things when he felt there was a good reason, it
- wasn't a good enough name or something along those
- lines, something might come to his attention.
- <sup>5</sup> Q. You testified that between July of
- 6 1965 and the end of 1972 freelance writers were
- paid based on a page rate for the writing that
- 8 they did for Marvel; is that correct?
- <sup>9</sup> A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Do you know who established the page
- rate that any particular writer would be paid
- during this time period?
- MR. KRAMER: Object to form, lack of
- 14 foundation.
- THE WITNESS: Ultimately, it was the
- publisher. Stan could make recommendations. And
- I believe, again, his recommendations were maybe a
- 18 little more -- had a little more force as time
- went on, but it was ultimately the publisher's
- responsibility, they all had to be approved by
- him, whether it be either Martin Goodman or Chip
- Goodman.
- 23 BY MS. KLEINICK:
- For the period from July 1965 to the
- end of '72, with respect to your freelance writing

```
Page 225
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2 work, were there any general time frames in 3 relationship to time that the issue was dialogued 4 that you were paid with respect to that issue?
5
                 MR. KRAMER: Object to form.
6
                 THE WITNESS: It would depend on when 7
    I managed to get the -- the voucher in. It was my 8 responsibility, as it was other writers, to fill 9 out vouchers and put them in, and they would go 10 down -- go to be signed at some stage during the 11 week and then we would be paid.
12
                 Generally speaking, if I recall 13 correctly, we usually put in the writing rate 14 after the whole thing was written as opposed to 15 putting in something when the plot was turned in.
16
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
17 0.
                 During this time period, with respect 18 to your freelance writing work, were you typically 19 paid before the issue hit the stands?
20 Usually I would have been because Α.
21
    they -- because by the time I -- from the time 22 that I might have finished the story until it was 23 on sale was going to be at least two or three 24 months, possibly a little more, possibly even a 25 couple of months more.
```

```
Page 226
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2
                 So if -- even if I missed a pay 3 period, it was only going to be a couple weeks or 4 so, two or three weeks, before I was paid. So I 5 was almost always paid before it was on sale.
                And during this time period with 7 respect to your freelance writing work, did you 8 receive the same page rate regardless of whether 9 the issue ultimately sold well or not?
10
          Α.
                Yes, I did.
11
                 Do you have any understanding of 0.
12 whether other freelance writers who submitted 13 materials to Marvel during this time were also 14 paid the same -- their same page rate regardless 15 of whether the issue they worked on ultimately 16 sold well or not?
17
                 MR. KRAMER: Objection. Object to 18 form and lack of foundation.
19
                 THE WITNESS: Yes. It was a straight 20 page rate system.
21
    BY MS. KLEINICK:
22
           Q.
                 When you first joined Marvel in the 23
    -- in 1965, was it your understanding that the 24 materials that you were submitting for publication 25 as a freelance writer were works-for-hire owned by
```

```
Page 355
1
                    ROY THOMAS
2 hire," but it was just another term for the way I 3 felt I had been working all along.
4
           Q.
                 So what you understood -- or your 5 understanding was that the work that you were creating, to the extent you would have any rights 7 in it, you were giving those rights up to 8
    Marvel --
                 MS. KLEINICK: Objection.
10
    BY MR. KRAMER:
11
                 -- at all times?
           0.
12
                 MS. KLEINICK: Mischaracterizes his 13 testimony.
14
                 THE WITNESS: The back of the check 15 said that I was -- that by signing the check I was 16 signing over my rights to -- to Marvel.
17
    BY MR. KRAMER:
18 0.
                 And later, in the mid 1970s when the 19 term "work-for-hire" started banging around, you 20 understood that to refer to the same general 21 situation that had already existed?
22
                 MS. KLEINICK: Objection.
23
                 THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.
24
    BY MR. KRAMER:
25
           Q.
                 And do you understand that work-for-
```

```
Page 410
1
                     ROY THOMAS
2 CERTIFICATE
3
4
5
     SOUTH CAROLINA:
     RICHLAND COUNTY:
7 8 9
                   I hereby certify that the foregoing 10 deposition was reported, as stated in the caption, 11 and the questions and answers thereto were reduced 12 to that written page under my direction; that the 13 foregoing pages 1 through 168 represent a true and 14 correct transcript of the evidence given.
15
      further certify that I am not in any way 16 financially interested in the result of said case.
17 Pursuant to Rules and Regulations of 18 the Board of Court Reporting of the Judicial 19 Council of South Carolina, I make the following 20 disclosure:
21
                   I am a South Carolina Court Reporter.
                 I am here as an independent contractor 23 for TSG Reporting.
24
                   I was contacted by the offices of 25 TSG Reporting to provide court reporting services
```

Page 411 1 ROY THOMAS 2 for this deposition. I will not be taking this 3 deposition under any contract that is prohibited by O.C.S.C.A. 15-14-7 (a) or (b). I have no written contract to provide reporting services with any party to the case, any counsel in the case, or any reporter or reporting agency from whom a referral might have been made to cover this meeting. I will charge 10 my usual and customary rates to all parties in the 11 case. 12 This, the 18th day of April, 2011. 13 Rita Derouen 14 15 RITA A. DEROUEN 16 My Commission Expires 17 August 12, 2019 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25